NOTICE OF MOTION

for consideration at the Annual General Meeting.

That current auditors, Booth Partners, be allowed to resign as auditors and be replaced by DFK Laurence Varney as the Clubs Audit firm.

Note to Members

As part of the Board's due diligence to try and reduce overhead costs, the Clubs most recent Auditors, Booth Partners, were asked to provide a quote for their upcoming services, along with several other recognized firms. As a result of this, the Board, having done their due diligence, move the motion to change the Clubs auditors for the upcoming financial year, backdated to July 1st 2016. Once passed, DFK Laurence Varney will become the Clubs new auditors, replacing Booth Partners as the Clubs auditing firm.

By way of background, DFK Laurence Varnay believe there are no limits in business, just endless opportunities, they are a leading accountancy and business advisory firm, with a strong history delivering high-quality professional services to a range of clients since 1957. From the start, they see themselves as a part of your business, taking the time to understand your strategy and unique needs, leveraging broad industry experience and specialist expertise to deliver you the right solutions. They understand the pressures of business and help you take advantage of every possible avenue for success.
